The Florence Biennale is the major contemporary art and design exhibition in Florence and one of the world's leading contemporary art exhibitions. Artists and designers from 78 countries participated in the latest edition, which has been held under the patronage of the European Parliament, Italian Commission for UNESCO, Italian Ministry of Culture and Tourism, Tuscany Region, and Municipality of Florence, and was attended by more than 10,000 visitors.

The 3rd edition of Qatar International Art Festival has been successfully organized by MAPS International WLL in association with Katara Cultural Village. The QIAF 2021 festival was 6 days long starting 23rd October 2021 which enthralled artists and audiences with lots of activities.

The Festival began with the 'Qatar Cultural Tour' where the International as well as Qatar based participating artists toured the beautiful city of Doha. They were amazed seeing the beauty of the places like Museum of Islamic Art (MIA), National Museum of Qatar (NMoQ), The Pearl Qatar and Souq Waqif among others.

Next day was the Red-Carpet Inauguration of the festival. The General Manager of the Katara Cultural Village was the chief guest for the event which was attended by large number of His Excellencies, The Ambassadors and distinguished dignitaries. The opening of the Art exhibition was witness by a gathering of over 800 people. More than 500 pieces of the Paintings and sculptures of more than 270 artists from over 65 countries, were on displayed in four galleries of Building 18 and 19 at Katara Cultural Village.

QIAF facilitates value adding through conducting various Master classes and documentaries by renowned artists to gain the new insight. The Documentary featuring the Qatar Olympic Museum was a highlight of the day.

An Incredible MAPS Artistic fashion Show was the glittering event where participating artists through their creative work, expressed beautiful side of the costume and accessories with designer style and substance to enhance the creativity in the Art. The Fashion show was organized in collaboration with The Qatar-USA Year of Cultural in association with the Embassy of USA and IMB Qatar, the Fashion institute.

This year QIAF 2021 collaborated with 'Artmosphere' a renowned International art magazine covering art buzz of Europe, to feature profile and work of all QIAF participating Artists.

An added feature to celebrate the Cultural Evening was celebrated in support with the Embassy of India, Qatar to commemorate the 75th Year of Indian Independence showing the diverse and rich cultural heritage of India.

The last day of QIAF, most awaited highlighting ceremony of 'six days long artists gathering' culminated into Awards & Certificates distribution, which is the token of expression to honor and recognize art, artists and art form.

Qatar International Art festival showcases beautiful artistic power of 'human expression' beyond its borders, cultures and time. QIAF largest Art festival, held every year, is truly a mega event of its kind for creative people. The artist community from around the globe came together to explore their creative side. Rashmi Agarwal, President of MAPS International Wll has been relentlessly pursuing her dream to bring art and artists on a common platform. The talents across the world gathered to display their creativity on a single platform. The talented artists exhibited their painting, sculpture, photography, fashion designing with innovative ideas
